American Board of Trial Advocates

O. John Alpizar Selected as Central Florida ABOTA's 2019 Trial Lawyer of the Year

Alpizar Law is pleased to announce that attorney O. John Alpizar has been selected as the 2019 Trial Lawyer of the Year by the American Board of Trial Advocacy Central Florida Chapter (CFLABOTA). Trial Lawyer of the Year is given to an attorney who meets specific criteria by demonstrating the quality of being an excellent advocate, achieving a distinguished career, displaying a superb reputation of high ethics and fair play, and has obtained outstanding results for their clients. Mr. Alpizar was selected for membership in CFLABOTA in 2007. He has served in all capacities of the Executive Board of CFLABOTA, including President in 2014. Mr. Alpizar will be recognized at the CFLABOTA luncheon on November 12th in Orlando, Florida.

The American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) was founded in 1958 and is dedicated to defending the American civil justice system. ABOTA is made up of only 6,700 experienced lawyers in the country representing plaintiffs or defendants in civil cases. Invitation into the organization requires a member to exhibit the principles of courtroom civility, integrity and professionalism, and demonstration of proficiency and competence in the courtroom. CFLABOTA was established in 1997 and is one of the largest and most prestigious ABOTA regions in the country. Admission into ABOTA is a true honor for individuals of stellar character and in-depth experience within the legal profession.
